

Africa Broadcasting Uganda Limited (ABUL), a Nation Media Group company, operating NTV and SPARK TV seeks to recruit talented and qualified individuals to fill the vacancy below.

RETAINED NEWS REPORTER SPARK TV

Reports to: Head of News Gathering

JOB ROLE:

To interpret and communicate news and public affairs in the most in-depth and insightful manner

KEY RESPONSIBILITIES:

- Takes instructions and briefs from the News Producer on stories to be covered
- Ensures that the equipment i.e. camera kit and recording cards are readily available and in working order
- Assesses the situation on location to determine the required pictures and sound bites to capture; with or without a camera-person
- Carries out the necessary interviews and does a piece-to-camera [PTC] to own the story and show presence at location
- Previews recorded or live footage, interpret and write a news script matching the footage
- Investigate breaking news developments, such as unique phenomena, disasters, crimes or stories of human interest
- Research and analyse background information related to stories to provide complete and accurate information
- Gather incisive and in-depth information through research, interviews and crucial news sources or leads

- Research and deliver a feature story every week in the field of health, entrepreneurship, arts, consumer affairs, crime or education

REQUIRED ABILITIES & COMPETENCES:

- Basic University Degree
- Diploma in Journalism/Mass Communication
- 1 to 3 years Working experience
- Must have in-depth knowledge of current affairs
- Experience working in a real time news environment
- Ability to work odd hours in a fast paced environment
- Must have a good command of the English Language
- Maintain a presence for your personal brand and for your investigations on social media.
- Interested applicants should submit a Capability Statement (2 pages max) together with their Curriculum Vitae (CV) to the under signed by Friday, October 5th 2018
- Academic and other support documents that vouch for your abilities don't have to be submitted at this stage. These will be requested for at subsequent stages.

Applications can be sent via email to ntvhr@ntv.co.ug

The Head of Human Resources,
Africa Broadcasting (U) Limited – NTV
Uganda, Kampala Serena Conference Center, KAMPALA

Only short listed applicants will be contacted